 Jason Kivett, the Treasurer, is humble and funny,
 and he did not squander all the class money.
 Caitlin Brennan, the Secretary, never was late,
 and the updates she wrote were really great.
 Dave Baghaei-Rad, the Vice-President, made the slide show,
 He's got a great singing voice, in case you didn't know.
 Justin Dittrich, the President, built a bird feeder,
 and assumed the role of class leader.
 At our first pot-luck dinner, many kids were being flirts,
 it was then we distributed the senior women t-shirts.
 The homecoming parade, was humorous yet lame,
 But everyone had a good time, then marched to the game.
 The banquet went smoothly as did the prom.
 Graduation gave memories,
 and the all night party entertained us from dusk 'till dawn.
 So thank your class officers, they did really well,
 and always helped out one another as well.
 As we look back throughout our four years,
 we can finally say we have overcome our fears.

The 1998 Women's Soccer Team, coached by Mr. Heller and led by captains Jane Crowley, Anna Deligianidis, and Amanda Lohin, started off the season with a victory against Dedham (1-0). It was not until late in the season at the Brookline game that we clinched a spot in the tournament. In the tournament we went to the quarterfinals against Duxbury, losing (1-0). We wish the 1999 team GOOD LUCK!

Led by second year coach Jay Cooney, the 1998 Varsity Men's soccer team hoped to build on a successful tournament run last season. Anchored by a core of seven returning starters, the team set high goals for this season. Providing the leadership were tri-captains Jason Kivett, Scott Epstein, and Kevin Alexander. Troubled by a mediocre start, the team looked to improve their play and finish strong leading into the state tournament. This year's team thanks its loyal fans and wishes next year's team good luck.

The 1998 W.H.S. Women's volleyball team met the year with high hopes and big challenges. Having graduated the varsity team two years in a row, the newcomers looked forward to their first year of Varsity. With the positive coaching of Mr. Bill Toffling and assistant Matt Pelonzi, the Raiders quickly became prepared for the season ahead of them. Faced with challenging opponents, the Raiders rose to the occasion. The team had their ups and downs, and when they were up, they were golden. When the team's best efforts ended in defeat, the Raiders stayed optimistic. Led by captains Elizabeth Krupp, Lindsay Beach, and Jill Snider the team of only nine players grew close and remained positive. It was a season filled with laughter and friendship. The graduating seniors will surely be missed. Good luck to next year's Team.

Old Mr. Webster could never define the success of the 1998 Varsity Field Hockey Team. Led by Coach Molonea and Assistant Coach Guinane, co-captains Nina Housel, Julie Kosstrin and the seniors, we had a final record of 8-5-7. After defeating Notre Dame of Hingham in double overtime in the preliminary round of the state tournament and holding onto the fifteenth seed, we went on to defeat the undefeated second seed, Aponequet. Our season came to a close when we were defeated by Oliver Ames in the quarterfinals. We are very proud of the hard work and dedication that we put into our season. Remember.....Hold on for one more game!

Brrrrr! I don't want to get in — the water's too cold!

The Women's Swimming and Diving Team ended their dual meet season with a winning record of 5-4. Part of their success was due to the excellent guidance of Coaches Cynthia Baker and Stephanie Stein. This year, ten swimmers competed at South Sectionals, earning an impressive twelfth place finish. Eight of those swimmers continued on to the State Finals, including Colleen Crowley, Megan Dowling, Kate Fillo, Meghan Gally, Brinley Mooney, Emily Schulte, Tess Tomlinson, and Lindsey White. Our Senior diver, Brinley Mooney, had a terrific post-season, winning the Bay State Conference Title and placing fourth at South Sectionals and eleventh at States. The entire Swim Team also had fun outside the pool, participating in their annual car wash and team sleepover at the Wellesley Inn. Congratulations on having a great season!

The 1998 Cross-Country Team

Fall of 1998 was an outstanding season for the WHS Cross-Country Team coached by Mr. Bowman. After several consecutive years without a single win, the girls won three meets under the leadership of captains Emily Ball and Colleen Howard. Freshman Heidi Hansbury, who placed third in the Freshman Catholic Memorial Race, played a star role in this year's success, as well as Laura Corda, Catherine Niarhos, Ashley Fish, Diana Huffman and Kate Wardwell.

The boys had a successful season as they clinched the Bay State Herget Title with a 5-0 record. Lead by captains Matt Corda and Nat Brown, the boys ran on to win second place in the Bay State Conference. All members worked hard and provided depth to the team. Cross-Country has high hopes for next year.

Football

Celebrate!

Jesse creatin' some mayhem! (J. Davis)

The 1998 Wellesley Varsity Football team pulled through with a memorable season. The Raiders compiled a perfect record of 11-0 during the regular season, and were able to clinch a Super Bowl birth against Marshfield. Coached by Mr. Levin, Mr. Tracy, Mr. Mastro, and Mr. Griffith, the team held the title of Bay State Conference Champions. Co-Captains Wes Enicks and Jesse Davis showed their leadership skills both on and off the field. The Raiders dominated the competition all season by beating tough contenders Walpole, Norwood, and Milton with ease. The Raiders would like to thank Patty Hickey, Mr. Tripp, and all their loyal fans for the continuous support throughout the season. We hope a new winning tradition will endure. GO RAIDERS!

Putting from the sand? (M. Killigrew)

Bay State Conference beware: Wellesley High School Golf is BACK. Mr. Hamilton's troops rallied late in the season to qualify for the tournament for the first time in eight years. Key to the team's success were co-captains Evan Powers and James Hayes, reinforced by low scorer junior John Conway, senior Jason Der, and several surprising underclassmen. With its widespread young talent, this team should continue its winning ways and join the brass of the Bay State Conference.

The Varsity Girls Basketball Team did very well this year. Coach Cieri and assistant Coaches Collins and Donahue led the team to a 16-4 record while going into the tournament. Captains Jane Crowley and Shaun Russell helped lead the Raiders to a winning season, along with seniors, Emily Krause and Maura Kennedy. Just shy of being in first place in the Bay State Herget Division, the Raiders ended their season second in their conference. They were very excited about the team's success. Beating teams such as Newton North, Norwood, and being first in the Medfield Classic Tournament were just some of the great highlights of the season. Go Raiders!

This past season marks a comeback for the Men's Indoor Track Team. Led by Captains Matt Corda, Jon Hatoun, and Nat Brown, the Raiders defeated the Walpole Rebels by 20 points to earn their first victory since 1993. Some of the team members that made this achievement possible by placing 1st in their events were, Matt Corda (1000m), Jon Hatoun (600m), Kenny McDonald (55m, High Jump, 55m Hurdles), Fred Hartman (1 Mile), and Kevin Tully (2 Mile). Throughout the season, coaches Mr. Bowman, Mr. Scafati, and Mr. Cody provided guidance and encouragement for all team members. With the team's improvements on every level, the future ahead looks bright!

Led by tri-captains Hannah Young, Laure Bernal, and Caroline Moriama, the Raider's gymnastics team had a fantastic season. With the help and encouragement from the Bay State "Coach of the Year," Marlyce Mancini, they were able to improve their scores by 16.5 points from the first meet. Freshman, Courtney Jacobs, and Bay State "Gymnast of the Year," Laure Bernal aided the team to a score of 124.5, the highest in several years. The team was guided by unity and extensive team effort. Individual improvement led to overall team excellence.

"I think my shoe is untied." (E. Erickson)

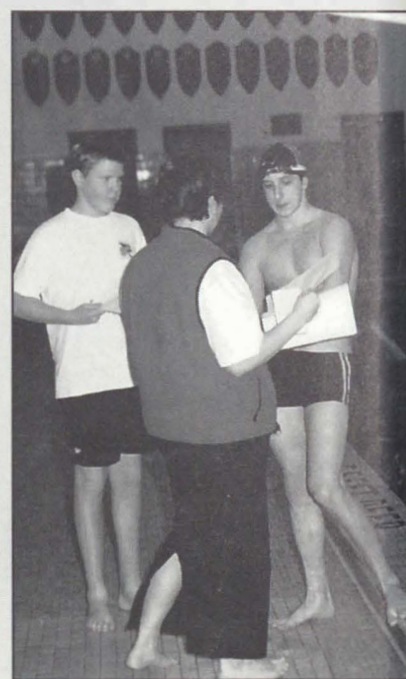

The 1999 Ski Team

The lack of natural snow this year posed a bit of a problem to both cross-country and downhill teams, but nevertheless both teams finished off the season with great success. The boy's cross country team was led by senior Matt Nalesnik who finished second in the state championship. Emma Erickson also finished the season with an impressive first in the league. We all appreciated the guidance and humor of our coaches Mr. Gallerani and Mr. Mighill. We wish the upcoming team the best of luck.

Men's Swimming and Diving

Staigten those legs, diving boy who shall remain nameless!!

On the deck or in the pool, captains and coaches always rule!

"I don't know about that outfit, coach!" (W. Reilly)

It's a story of two patient coaches, who were burdened by some very rowdy boys.

All of them had hairless heads a tradition swimmers enjoy.

Until one day when these swimmers met at poolside to practice diving with a flare!

They had tons of spirit, fun, and talent, and matching coats to wear.

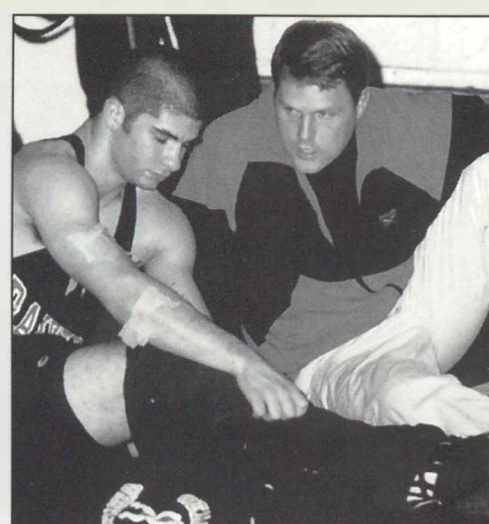

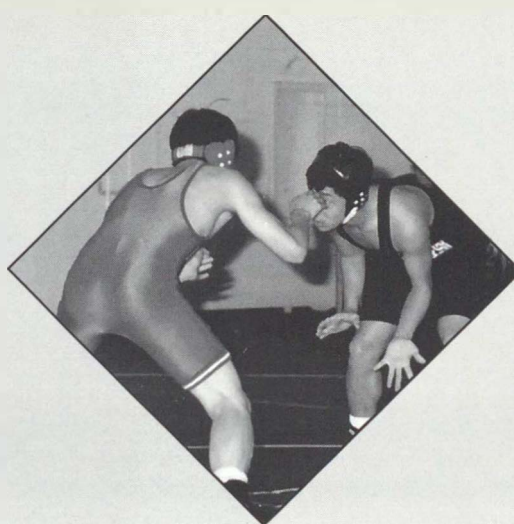

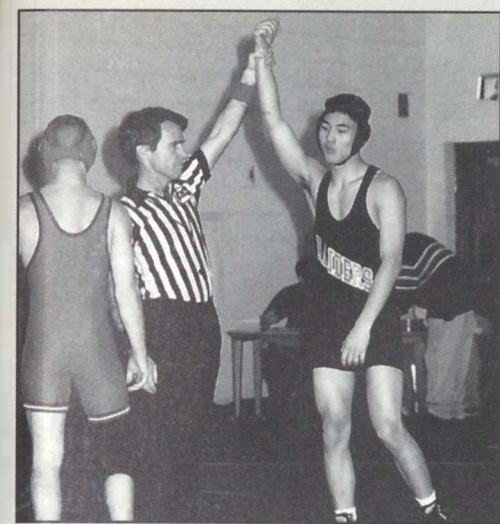

These swimmers gathered at Babson College to swim; and swim they did.

It was clear this team would somehow form a unit... they had a dream...

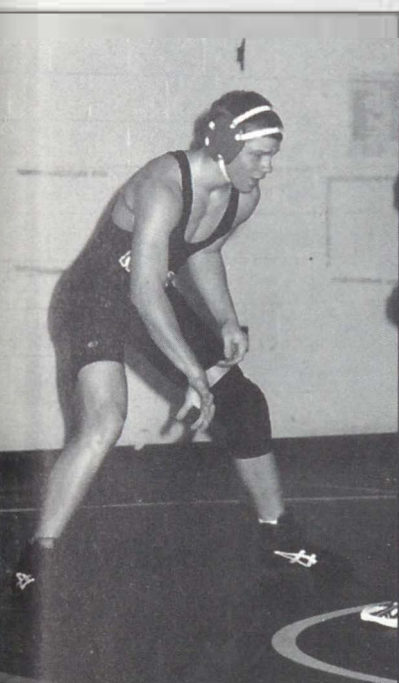

That's the way they all became this great WHS Swim team!

Silence of Spring 1998

Wispings winds blow over the grassy plains
while waves of water wash ashore.
but here where we stand,
it's silent

fires burn in some forest,
crackling,
killing.

People chat as they run in packs
like birds of a flock, far away but here...
still silent

Off millions of miles away,
glowing stars burn with fury,
with so much power
but from here they seem soft,
innocent
barely bright enough to be seen under the shining moon.

Here we stand, surrounded by friends.
Talking, making noise with their mouths.
And we stand quietly thinking.
Trying to think of something to say, something

But there is nothing to be said.
There is nothing needed to fill the void of conversation
Even if it were possible to put into words, it wouldn't be worth it.
Because if what I have to say to you is true,
you already know it.

-Bert C. Huang

Midnight Applause

Blue-emerald mist hovers lightly above the Earth
The dark night is lonely, but not still.
The night air is alive with heavy sprinkles falling in great sheets of crystal drops nectar from above, soaring down, a cool shower Skipping across lakes, refreshing the dry soil clinging to plants, coating the trees, pattering the rooftops where many lie fast asleep
But the heavens have just awakened.
The silent blanket of night sighs as the sky opens wider.
Rapid beats are harmoniously played, stimulating and awe-inspiring
Invigorating, pounding, splashing and swirling
The symphony echoes and crescendos across the sky
Electric, with a life of its own for no one to see no one but me.

-Larry Handershan

Heaven crying

Heaven crying
tear drops
dripping from above
one by one raining, raining puddles forming clouds above
dark skies
dew forming streams running faster, faster oceans created waves breaking cold and wet
still raining
harder, harder
Heaven crying

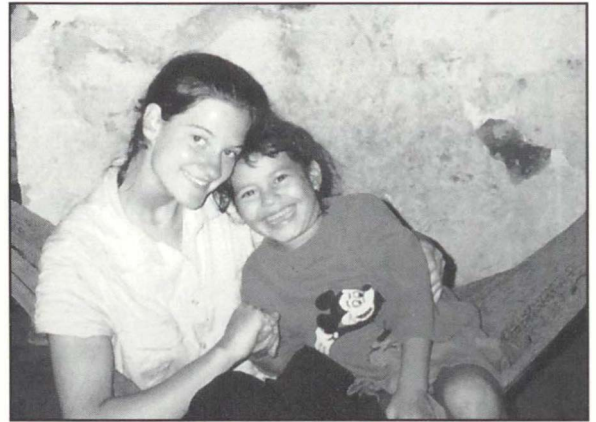

-Kyle Gallary
